

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the nonprofit sector in South Carolina is large, diverse, and growing, with nonprofits serving communities throughout the Palmetto State; and

WHEREAS, from the local food bank and boys and girls clubs to environmental groups, emergency shelters, and organizations working with veterans, the elderly, and the disabled, South Carolina nonprofits create a seamless network of caring that strengthens and enhances our quality of life; and

WHEREAS, these charitable nonprofit organizations are dedicated to meeting the varied needs of our residents, making a difference in the lives of others while saving taxpayer dollars; and

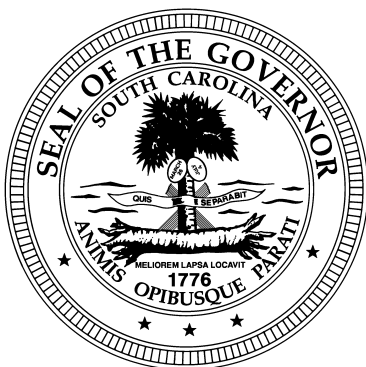

WHEREAS, the staff and volunteers of nonprofit organizations in South Carolina uphold the highest standards of servant leadership by donating their time and effort to enriching our communities; and

WHEREAS, the 2007 observance of South Carolina Nonprofit Organization Week recognizes the many contributions made by nonprofit organizations to our quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 22 - 28, 2007, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the positive impact of nonprofit organizations on the continued well-being of our residents.
